- If the policy has more than one owner, AML/CFT documents are required for each owner
- To verify source of wealth, in certain circumstances, we may require additional information and/or documentation (for example, large premium)
- For retirements, ARFs, annuities, and Vested PRSAs, if the client’s bank account details are not fully completed on the retirement instruction form, or the client wants us to lodge to a different account, we will require certified copy of proof of bank account
- For politically exposed persons, their relatives and close associates, we must apply enhanced customer due diligence procedures. You may be required to provide additional information and documentation (such as your client’s source of funds, wealth, and identity)

- For surrenders, transfers and retirements from one Standard Life product into another Standard Life product, the new business AML/CFT requirements apply
- For death claims, please contact us for our requirements
- For companies, see our Additional declaration by company as policyowner form (CD) for requirements
- For trusts, the new business AML/CFT requirements apply to each settlor, trustee, and trust protector. For trust money out, we will also require the money out AML/CFT documents for the beneficiary
- For charities, either the company or trust requirements will apply

Existing policies and current AML/CFT standards

Where we have verification on file, we won't normally ask for further proof. If what we have on file is not up to current standards or has expired, we may ask for current and/or recent proof.

This is a brief summary and the lists are not exhaustive. We reserve the right to ask for additional documentation. Contact us if you need more information.

Calls may be monitored and/or recorded to protect both you and us and help with our training. Call charges will vary.
