- If the policy has more than one owner, AML/CFT documents are required for each owner
- For retirements, ARFs, annuities, and Vested PRSAs, if the client's bank account details are not fully completed on the retirement instruction form, or the client wants us to lodge to a different account, we will require a copy of proof of bank account
- For politically exposed persons, their relatives and close associates, we must apply enhanced customer due diligence procedures (regardless of product type). You may be required to provide additional information and documentation (such as your client's source of funds, wealth, and identity)
- For surrenders, transfers and retirements from one Standard Life product into another Standard Life product, the new business AML/CFT requirements apply
- For death claims, please contact us for our requirements
- For charities, either the corporate entity or trust requirements will apply
- ✘ We don't accept payments from a 3rd party, or payments from outside the EU or UK

Existing policies and current AML/CFT standards

Where we have verification on file, we won't normally ask for further proof. If what we have on file is not up to current standards or has expired, we may ask for current and/or recent proof.

By law, if we're unable to identify and verify your client because they don't provide the necessary verification documents/information to us, we're not allowed to carry out any of your client's instructions (or your instructions on behalf of your client) until it's provided.

This is a brief summary, and the lists are not exhaustive. We reserve the right to ask for additional documentation and/or certification of copies. Contact us if you need more information.
