If you are a Policy owner, you will own the policy and normally receive its proceeds.

If you are a Life assured, payment of the policy proceeds will depend on your life and death.

Lives assured and policy owners must be younger than age 75 when setting up the policy. We'll consider those aged 75+ on a case by case basis: talk to your financial adviser.

If there is more than one policyowner, we'll issue correspondence to all the policyowners at the address of the 1st named policyowner.

We may use your email to help manage your policy. If you don't want us to use it, leave it blank.

* We're required to verify your PPSN. Please provide evidence, for example, copy of PAYE notice of tax credits or printed Revenue or Dept of Social Protection correspondence.

US citizens are considered to be tax resident in the US under US tax law. This applies whether or not they hold a US passport. It also applies to US Green Card holders.

If you need more information about tax residency, talk to your financial adviser. If you need more space to list all your tax residences, please copy this page.

If you choose execution only stockbroking, please note that trading is currently limited to Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs). If it comes to our attention that you have bought non-ETF investments, we will instruct Stocktrade to sell those investments. Please be aware that in these circumstances, your policy will be charged the cost of selling those investments. The tax status of your policy may change as a result of buying non-ETF investments.

If you choose to invest in ETFs, before you invest you will need to complete an Alliance Trust Savings (Stocktrade) Appropriateness Assessment form to assess your understanding on the appropriateness of ETFs. This form is available from your financial adviser or Standard Life. It should be sent to Standard Life with this application.

An individual will be regarded as resident in the Republic of Ireland ('the State') for a tax year if the individual:

- (a) is present in the State for 183 days or more in that tax year; or
- (b) has a combined presence of 280 days or more in the State taking into account the number of days present in the State in that tax year together with the days present in the State in the preceding tax year.

If an individual is present in the State for less than 30 days in a particular tax year, the individual will not be considered as being resident in the State in that tax year and no account shall be taken of the period of less than 30 days for the purposes of the 280 day test, unless the individual elects to become a resident. An individual is considered present if they are present in the State at any time during that day.
